The casiest Way to Learn the old Staff and Crotchet and Quaver Style of Music is to learn the shortest read to reading the old notation at sight, to writing from ear, and to a thorough understanding of the theory of music, lies through the natural method of Crevé. In addition to that, the most easy, simple, natural, and every way the best method of representing music on paper, independent of the old style, is Chevé's system; so that, having his system, the bungling old one might be consigned to the dust and lamber of the past, and never be missed. The new temple would rise bright and beautiful on the runss of the old.

BIOGRAPHICAL HISTORY .-

Have in preparation a series of Histories of THE MONARCHIES OF CONTINENTAL EUROPE.
By John S. C. Alledt, "French Revolution of 1789," Ac.

The plan and method of these books are novel, and es

The plan and method of these books are novel, and eminently adapted to enhance their permanent value, as well as their immediate attractiveness. The sovereign and court are necessarily the center, about which the popular life revolves. So that which the election of Rationize Dynastics, as the main topic, gives clearness to the marrative, it also links together the minuter occurrences of national progress. The directness of blograppy is added to the full, eas of history. The series will comprise five or nore volumes, each of which will be complete, and ladependent of the others.

To the preeminent qualifications of Mr. Abbott for such a task, the publishers feel it unnecessary to allude. His own words, in the praince to the first volume, a sy, however, be quoted:

"The studies of the author of this work, for the last ten years, in writing the "History of Napoleon Bonarante," and the "French Revolution of 1788," have necessarily made him quite familiar with the monarchies of Europe. He has met with an much that was strarge and romantle in their career, that he has been interested to undettake, as it were, a Blography of the Monarchies of Continental Europe, their birth, education, exploits, and present condition. He has commenced with Austria."

On the 19th February we shall publish:

THE EMPIRE OF AUSTRIA: ITS RISE AND PRESENT POWER. By John S. C. Assott. One vol., crown 8vo. Cloth. Price $1 50.

One vol., crown 8vo. Cloth. Price $1.50.

"There are abundant materials for this work. The life of Anatria embraces all that is wild and wonderful in history, her early struggles for agrandizement; the fierce strife with the Turks, as wave after wave of Moslem invasion rolled up the Danube; the long conflict and bloody persecutions of the Reformation; toe thirty years' religious war; the meteoric career of Gustavus Adolphus, and Charies XII., shooting athwart the lurid storms of but te; the intrigues of Popes, the ecormous pride, power, and encroachments of Louis XIV.; the warfare of the Spanish succession, and the Polich dismemberment; all these events combine in a sublime tracedy, which fiction may in vain attempt to parallel."—Author's Preface.

THE EMPIRE OF RUSSIA, THE EMPIRE OF RUSSIA, will tollow in the Summer, to be succeeded by Spain, France, Germany, etc., each in a volume of between 500 and 500 pages, crown 8vo., cloth, at the uniform price of $1.50. The series will be of elegant appearance, and in durable and convenient style.

The publishers confidently promise these new works of Mr. Abbott, as presenting history in a fresher, livelier, and more effective manner than the majority of similar books, and believe they will prove an indiscensable addition to Family, School, and Social Libraries.

NATURAL HISTORY.

12mo, Muslin. Illustrated. Price #1 25.

From the Lendon Edition.

"In Natural History, as well as in other researches, it is too much the practice to copy facts and observations from printed books, the volume of Nature herself being unopened. It sheen the sim of the author to search into this wonderful book, to record facts which came under his own year, at the same time of researching the numerous works and lectures of celebrated Naturaliats; and the book before us is probably the most complete collection of instructive and ancedotal sketches upon the instresting subject of Natural History which has ever appeared."

ETHEL'S LOVE-LIFE.

From The N. Y. Evening Fost.

"It is in form an autobiography, containing, in a series of loveletters, the history of the growth of an earn-st and impetrous mind. The subject affords rare opportunities for psychological ansity's, the faculty of which the writer possesses in an eminent degree. She evidently thoroughly understands that fascinating mystery—a woman's heart."

"For a practical, comprehensive exposition of the principles of astronomy, as they are now understood, no better work can be found. Written in a glowing style, the great principles and facts of the science are stated in that popular language which every reader can understand, and which presents the author's thoughts in the clearest manner. For private reading, we think it will win its way at once to a universal popularity. It is illustrated by a series of admirable engravious, which add, of course, incomparably to the excellence and utility of the work."—[N. Y.

"Appleton's is the only Guide sold on the Roads diverging from Phi adeiphia."

"We have so often cal'ed the attention of our readers to the merits of this useful work, that it is unnecessary for us to speak of them now. It is a most complete traveler's guide, and being published under the supervision of the railway companies, and corrected monthly, may be regarded as perfectly reliable."

From The Courier and Enquirer.

"No traveler should be without this hook, which is published monthly and by authority, from official information."

From The Cinzinnati Commercial.

"App'etons' Railway Guide is, without exception, the most complete work of the hind ever published. Mr. O. F. Thomas, the original projector and complete of the Guide, was for many years a resident of our city, and is well known to nany of our citizens as peculiarly competent for a work of this kind."

Let us again refer to the statement of Dr. Beales, and in dorsed by Dr. Mett. of the treatment in this case, from I s. m. of the 14th December. The case, as presented, is fully stated almost increantly; speaking with great difficulty and pain; in a hourse and unnatural tone of voice. Dr. Bosio gave the patient pair, "described to be in the larguz down the course of the trackes to the chest, and round to the cervical vertibre." Not-withstanding the great excitement, nervousness and terror, with pulse at 112, the Doctor administered a preparation of Antimony and Morphine, for the purpose evidently of soothing the pain, and in the pain and in the " .inodyne liniment." If Radway's Ready Relief was obn to the Doctor, he should have applied the Anodyne linims the Liver, and during this critical condition of the patient he had not a discharge from the boseds " in three days." As a remodel scent, an injection was given, which failed; after which a table spoonfull of Castor Oil—this operated some hours afterward, "leaving the patient excessively exhausted." Had Radway's Resoluting Pills been given 12 hours after the previous opens tion of the bowels, the effect would have been different—the

The sad and distressing case of Mr. Whitney will, we hope The sad and distressing case of Mr. Whitney will, we hope and trust, serve as a warning to the public against trusting their lives in the hands of a clique who are ilconest to bill the sick in the unconscious sleep of death on scientific principles. As we before stated, we are not prepared to assert that the cause of Mr. Whitney's death was directly owing to the treatment of the Green system; and, we furthermore believe, had Dr. Besleë employed Radway's Ready Rellef, Regulating Pills, and Resolvent, in his treatment of the case, the life of Mr. Whitney would have been prolonged. As we have before stated, the case of Mr. Whitney is by no means an exception to the engest rule that Whitney is by no means an exception to the general rule that follows the medication as prescribed by the regular or official standard of medical law. Had the deceased been an obscure individual, his case would never have been brought to light.
Thousands and thousands of human brings have been killed off through the ignorance of their physicians.

Let us again go back to the testimony of Dr. Mott, as regards the usual practice of physicions in making out last certificates of the cause of death to the City Inspector. If the dector speaks truth, the greater part of the medical certificates are medical faiseboods; and the perpetrators of these faiseboods deserve to be imprisoned like other criminals undergoing seatences for false preterans.

"A warm debate then ensued, during which Dr. Mott was pressed to state the cause of Mr. Whitney's death. In reply thereto, he stated that it was well known that the profession was at a loss to define the cause of death from the symptoms presented. Doctors were often puzzled how to fit the necessary certificates for the City Inspector. The ready manner in which Dr. Mott described these symptoms created a little merriment."—[See remarks of Dr. Mott's defense, Academy of Modern Lea Co. 1870.
